

South Derbyshire DAAG Action plan 2012 - 2013

Key Objective	Action	Success Measure	Date Due	Responsible Person/s	Progress
Ensure that victims of domestic abuse and serious sexual violence are able to access support and feel safer as a result	Look at ways to promote local services within targeted areas ie: BME, Travellers, IDVA to work with LGBT.			All
	Look at developing a road show to target areas outside of urban core to promote local DV services . Could link in with Hope Exhibition and coffee morning.	Hold local events in rural areas to promote local DV Services		Reach the Charity/ SSDP	Two Community Safety Road shows planned for April 11 th at Stenson Fields and 18 th at Melbourne
Ensure that Young people and children who have experienced domestic abuse or serious sexual violence have access to appropriate advice and services, and consistent, proportionate and timely action to ensure their safety and well-being	Invite Reach the Charity to DAAG meeting to give a presentation on new Young people's service. Hold at least one campaign aimed at Young peoples relationships Work to deliver at least one campaign with Burton and South Derbys College, Potentially around Relationships week/ Valentines Day	Presentation given to DAAG Meeting Campaign rolled out Hold at least one further event at Burton and South Derbyshire College		Reach the Charity SSDP/ Lisa Morris SDCVS/ Reach the Charity/ Next Step/ Derbyshire	Information on the National Teenage Relationship Abuse Campaign has been circulated to DAAG Members Schools and MAT teams and posters and leaflets will be circulated shortly. DV Awareness raising event including Hope

	Consider ways to maintain links with secondary schools within the District to deliver DV awareness raising sessions			Friend / Victim Support SDCVS	exhibition held at Burton and South Derbyshire College's as part of relationship Week, and part of Lesbian Gay Bisexual Trans History Month. Chris Harris to present at College Staff development day in March
Ensure that adults at risk/vulnerable adults who have experienced domestic abuse or serious sexual violence have access to appropriate advice and services to ensure their safety and well-being	All agencies to work with local learning disabilities groups; ie: Shout and Shout Out to forge links and promote their services.	Demonstrate engagement with local groups		All	Invites to these groups can be made to attend the Community Safety Road shows in Stenson and Melbourne in April
Ensure that victims of domestic abuse and serious sexual violence are protected and that perpetrators are held to account.	Invite Probation to give presentation at DAAG on Integrated offender management and how it works with prolific DV Offenders	Presentation given at DAAG		Probation

Work to prevent domestic abuse and serious sexual violence by raising awareness with professionals and communities	Develop a local DAAG Training plan to log all training that is occurring locally and County wide. Include awareness campaigns			All
	Look at developing links with large companies to promote local DV services and offer training.			SSDP
	Identify whether partner agencies have Domestic Abuse Policies in place and identify one that can be used as best practice. (Support for staff)			All	