2.0 Purpose of Report

- 2.1 To ensure all Members are aware of the new Model Code (and associated documentation) produced by the LGA.
- 2.2 To allow consideration of the role of Independent Persons and a review of any future arrangements.

3.0 Executive Summary

- 3.1 The Local Government Association has developed the Model Councillor Code of Conduct in association with key partners and after extensive consultation with the sector, as part of its work on supporting all tiers of local government to continue to aspire to high standards of leadership and performance.
- 3.2 The Model Code is a template for local authorities to adopt in whole and/or with local amendments. The associated Guidance is aimed to assist understanding and consistency of approach towards the Code. The LGA have advised they will undertake an annual review of the Code to ensure it continues to be fit for purpose, incorporating advance in technology, social media, and amendments to legislation. The LGA can offer support, training, and mediation to Councils on the application of the Code and the National Association of Local Councils (NALC) can offer advice and support to Town and Parish Councils.

- 3.3 A copy of the Model Code has been sent to all Parish Councils within the District. Parish Councils have been encouraged to adopt the Model Code of Conduct at their Annual General Meeting's.
- 3.4 The Monitoring Officer attends a quarterly meeting of Derbyshire Monitoring Officers. It is hoped the Derbyshire authorities will maintain consistency in local arrangements, regarding the Members Code of Conduct.
- 3.5 Section 27 of the Localism Act 2011 requires that the arrangements under which decisions on allegations that a Member has breached the Code of Conduct must include provision for the appointment of at least one Independent Person. The views of the Independent Person must be sought and taken into account before a decision is taken on an allegation that the Monitoring Officer has decided to investigate. The Council currently has two Independent Persons

4.0 Detail

Members Code of Conduct

- 4.1 The Localism Act 2011 requires all Councils to have a local Member Code of Conduct. The Council's previous Code was adopted on 28th June 2012, with an implementation date of 1st July 2012. The regime approved in 2012 has continued unchanged and it is now necessary to review and confirm it remains fit for purpose.
- 4.2 The Committee for Standards in Public Life (CSPL) in its January 2020 report into Local Government Ethical Standards included a best practice recommendation for local authorities to adopt a Code of Conduct and recommended it be based on a model to be produced by the LGA. This sat alongside other recommendations, including some to Government that required primary legislation.
- 4.3 The LGA produced a draft Code of Conduct in December 2020, followed by updates in January 2021 and May 2021. There remained some issues with the Model Code of Conduct, including its definitions and application, leading the LGA to commission Guidance to be drafted to assist the process. Hoey Ainscough Associates assisted with drafting the Guidance. The purpose of the Guidance is to help understanding and consistency of the approach towards the Code. The LGA will also undertake annual review of this Guidance.

Independent Persons

- 4.4 The role of Independent Person has no specified term, the role has importance in the process for dealing with allegations of misconduct by Members; and the various requirements for independence that those must ensure when being appointed. It is considered challenging to recruit suitable volunteers to serve as Independent Persons. Due to the nature of the role, there are parameters set out in legislation regarding who and who may not be appointed. These include a Member, co-opted Member or officer of the authority, a relative or close friend of a person who is a Member of co-opted members or officer of the authority, and a person may not be appointed as an Independent Person if at any time during the 5 years ending with the appointment, the person was a Member, co-opted Member, or officer of the authority.
- 4.5 There is legal requirement for at least one Independent Person. The Localism Act 2011 requires appointment to be approved by the majority of Members of the Council. Furthermore, Independent Persons must be appointed through a process of public advertisement and application.

5.0 Financial Implications

5.1 None arising directly from this report.

6.0 Corporate Implications

6.0 The revised Members Code of Conduct will make changes to the expected standards of conduct for Elected Members. The LGA's Model Code of Conduct and Guidance provide a good foundation for commencing review of current processes and procedures.

7.0 Community Implications

7.1 The Council's Members Code of Conduct plays a vital role in promoting and maintaining the highest standards of conduct by Councillors of South Derbyshire District Council and all the Parishes in its area.

8.0 Legal Implications

8.1 Under the Localism Act 2011 all Council's must adopt a Code of Conduct. The Code should set out the conduct that is expected of Members and co-opted Members when acting in that capacity. The Code must be consistent with the principles of selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty, and leadership. Councils must also ensure their Code includes appropriate provisions about declaring pecuniary and other interests.
